Nothing Has to Make Sense Sherene H. Razack, 2022-04-19 How Western nations have consolidated their whiteness through the figure of the Muslim in the post 9 11 world While much has been written about post 9 11 anti Muslim racism often termed Islamophobia insufficient attention has been given to how anti Muslim racism operates through law and is a vital part of law s protection of whiteness This book fills this gap while also providing a unique new global perspective on white supremacy Sherene H Razack a leading critical race and feminist scholar takes an innovative approach by situating law within media discourses and historical and contemporary realities We may think of law as logical but argues Razack its logic breaks down when the subject is Muslim Tracing how white subjects and majority white nations in the post 9 11 era have consolidated their whiteness through the figure of the Muslim Razack examines four sites of anti Muslim racism efforts by American evangelical Christians to ban Islam in the school curriculum Canadian and European bans on Muslim women s clothing racial science and the sentencing of Muslims as terrorists and American national memory of the torture of Muslims during wars and occupations Arguing that nothing has to make sense when the subject is Muslim she maintains that these legal and cultural sites reveal the dread phobia hysteria and desire that mark the encounter between Muslims and the West Through the prism of racism Nothing Has to Make Sense argues that the figure of the Muslim reveals a world divided between the deserving and the disposable where people of European origin are the former and all others are confined in various ways to regimes of disposability Emerging from critical race theory and bridging with Islamophobia critical religious studies it demonstrates that anti Muslim racism is a revelatory window into the operation of white supremacy as a global force

Balkan Fighters in the Syrian War Tanja Dramac Jiries, 2021-09-14 This book analyses the process of the recruitment of foreign fighters from the Western Balkans specifically Bosnia and Herzegovina and Kosovo to Syria and Iraq from 2012 to 2015 Utilizing in depth semi structured interviews with foreign fighters and their families as well as a number of relevant stakeholders it answers the question of what were the processes and circumstances leading up to the departure of foreign fighters from Bosnia and Herzegovina and Kosovo and what informed their agency The author draws on the theories of social movement approaches more specifically contentious politics literature and utilizes the specific concepts of triggering mechanisms which refer to the enabling circumstances that make the radicalization and departure possible and pleasure in agency to elaborate on individual motivation The book also shows how a wider state fragility within the context of the post Yugoslav wars and the transitional period that never ended aided radicalization and how an incomplete process of post war transition can fuel the process of political and religious radicalization creating a wider enabling web for recruitment It will be of interest to students and scholars of Southeast European politics and foreign policy post war democratic transition security policy and radicalization more broadly
