Discourse The New Critical Idiom:

Discourse Sara Mills, 2004-12 This revised edition provides a broad analysis of the term discourse and a thorough examination of the many theoretical assumptions surrounding it The Discourse of Wealth And Poverty in the Book of Proverbs Timothy J. Sandoval, 2006 The Discourse of Wealth and Poverty in the Book of Proverbs includes a discussion of proverbs and metaphor reviews previous studies of wealth and poverty in Proverbs offers in depth analyses of particular passages in Proverbs and suggests a possible social historical setting for the book Orientalism and Religion Richard King, 2013-04-03 Orientalism and Religion offers us a timely discussion of the implications of contemporary post colonial theory for the study of religion Richard King examines the way in which notions such as mysticism religion Hinduism and Buddhism are taken for granted He shows us how religion needs to be reinterpreted along the lines of cultural studies Drawing on a variety of post structuralist and post colonial thinkers such as Foucault Gadamer Said and Spivak King provides us with a challenging series of reflections on the nature of Religious Studies and Indology Critical Genre Analysis Vijay K. Bhatia, 2016-11-18 Genre theory has focused primarily on the analysis of generic constructs with increasing attention to and emphasis on the contexts in which such genres are produced interpreted and used to achieve objectives often giving the impression as if producing genres is an end in itself rather than a means to an end The result of this focus is that there has been very little attention paid to the ultimate outcomes of these genre based discursive activities which are more appropriately viewed as academic institutional organizational and professional actions and practices which are invariably non discursive though often achieved through discursive means It was this objective in mind that the book develops an approach to a more critical and deeper understanding of interdiscursive professional voices and actions Critical Genre Analysis as a theory of discursive performance is thus an attempt to be as objective as possible rigorous in analytical endeavour using a multiperspective and multidimensional methodological framework taking into account interdiscursive aspects of genre construction to make it increasingly explanatory to demystify discursive performance in a range of professional contexts

Arrivals and Departures Otto Latva, Heta Lähdesmäki, Kirsi Sonck-Rautio, Harri Uusitalo, 2024-05-13 Text Linguistics and Translation Ismat Al-Massri, 2013-03-21 The key purpose of this work is to examine the interrelationship between the field of text linguistics and translation with specific reference to computer translation The question arises whether machine translation can ever be a practicable and reliable substitute for human translators Based on this premise this study assesses the effectiveness of machine translation software in its ability to translate the nuances of text linguistics from a source language to a target language Following a literature review of text linguistics covering a number of textual analysis models and translation studies including machine translation the primary research utilises a qualitative research methodology by means of text based assessment Three text samples are drawn from each of the following six text linguistic categories register pragmatics semiotics text type genre and discourse Using three leading Arabic translation software
