Discovering Albanian I Textbook:

Discovering Albanian I Textbook Linda Mëniku, Héctor Campos, 2011-08-01 Approximately five million people worldwide speak Albanian. The opening of Albania in the 1990s to broader trading and diplomatic relations with other nations has created a need for better knowledge of the language and culture of this country. This book teaches the student to communicate in everyday situations in the language with each chapter introducing a new situational context. Students learn to discuss work, vacations, health, and entertainment. Students also learn to practice basic skills such as shopping, ordering tickets, and renting an apartment. Upon completing this textbook, students will be at the A2 B1 level of proficiency on the scale provided by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). The textbook includes eighteen lessons based on real-life situations, including three review lessons, dialogues to help introduce vocabulary and grammatical structures, comprehension questions, and exercises. Related readings at the end of each chapter, full translations for all examples discussed in grammar sections, a series of appendixes with numerous charts summarizing main classes of nouns, adjectives, and verbs, an appendix with the solutions to most of the exercises in the book, a glossary with all the words in the dialogs and readings.

Discovering Albanian I Workbook Linda Mëniku, Héctor Campos, 2011-08-01 A companion workbook offers a rich variety of graded practice exercises in grammar and vocabulary. A key to all the exercises is included at the end of the workbook.

The Grammar of Romanian Gabriela Pană Dindelegan, Martin Maiden, 2013-04-25 This book is the first comprehensive grammar in English of present-day standard Romanian. It is an indispensable resource for Romance linguists from advanced undergraduate level and above.

Adjective Adverb Interfaces in Romance Martin Hummel, Salvador Valera, 2017-12-21 Within the current discussion on grammatical interfaces, the word classes of adjective and adverb are of particular interest because they appear to be separated or joined in manifold ways at the level of word class or syntax, with morphology playing a prominent role, especially in Romance. The volume provides typological and theoretical insights into the common or different usage of adjectives and adverbs in Romance. Diachronic change is discussed alongside with synchronic variation and the representation in grammar. The discussion turns out to be controversial, calling into question traditional assumptions such as the dogma of the invariability and the categorial status of the adverb.

Strategies of Symbolic Nation-building in South Eastern Europe Pål Kolstø, 2016-04-01 After the conflagration of Tito's Yugoslavia, a medley of new and not so new states rose from the ashes. Some of the Yugoslav successor states have joined or are about to enter the European Union, while others are still struggling to define their national borders, symbols, and relationships with neighbouring states. Strategies of Symbolic Nation building in South Eastern Europe expands upon the existing body of nationalism studies and explores how successful these nation building strategies have been in the last two decades. Relying on new quantitative research results, the contributors offer interdisciplinary analyses of symbolic nation building in Albania, Bosnia Herzegovina, Croatia, Kosovo, Macedonia, Montenegro.

and Serbia to show that whereas the citizens of some states have reached a consensus about the nation building project other states remain fragmented and uncertain of when the process will end A must read not only for scholars of the region but policy makers and others interested in understanding the complex interplay of history symbolic politics and post conflict transition
