Discovering Psychology Don Hockenbury, Sandra E. Hockenbury, 2016-03-02 Sandra Hockenbury and new coauthor Susan Nolans remarkable textbook is grounded in the belief that all kinds of students can develop a real understanding of psychology and lasting scientific literacy The authors act on that belief by using relatable personal stories to communicate the concepts of psychological science and the process of science itself and by presenting important research in a clear not oversimplified way Hockenbury and Nolan also take full advantage of online learning creating activities in LaunchPad that have students thinking about psychology as scientists do New co author Susan Nolan of Seton Hall University was recently designated a Master Teacher by the Society for Teaching Psychology She regularly gives talks about incorporating scientific literacy into the introductory course and across the psychology curriculum More Statistical and Methodological Myths and Urban Legends Charles E. Lance, Robert J. Vandenberg, 2014-11-05 This book provides an up to date review of commonly undertaken methodological and statistical practices that are based partially in sound scientific rationale and partially in unfounded lore Some examples of these methodological urban legends are characterized by manuscript critiques such as a your self report measures suffer from common method bias b your item to subject ratios are too low c you can t generalize these findings to the real world or dyour effect sizes are too low What do these critiques mean and what is their historical basis More Statistical and Methodological Myths and Urban Legends catalogs several of these quirky practices and outlines proper research techniques Topics covered include sample size requirements missing data bias in correlation matrices negative wording in survey research and much more Loose-leaf Version for Discovering the Scientist Within Garv W. Lewandowski, Jr., Natalie J.
