... Library of Congress. Division of Bibliography,1903 Discourse John L. Dudley,2015-07-08 Excerpt from Discourse Preached in the South Congregational Church Middletown on the Sabbath Morning After the Assassination of President Lincoln This is the refrain of every heart in this tearful presence this morning the speechless lament on the quivering lip of the whole community the muffled echo of the deep heavy pulse of woe that throbs at the heart of the nation A terrible thing has come upon the land an awful darkness suddenly shrouded it The people stand chilled in horror pierced to the life by an unutterable grief Mourning is everywhere in the streets in the air I hear it in the bell toll see it on the mute lip of these sable drapings of woe The light of the blessed morning seems charged with its burden Not only is it in the Capitol so hushed and awe stricken but by every fireside in the land in every solitary heart There is no tongue to speak aught else there is no ear for any other word Our venerated President is no more Abraham Lincoln the wise the pure the noble the true is dead About the
