understanding Paul Kibirige,2020-08-17 Exam Revision from the year 2020 in the subject Gender Studies grade graduate course social works and social administration language English abstract You have been appointed the Minister of Gender and Social Development Identify and explain the key gender issues that you would seek to address Show the specific strategies that you would use in addressing those issues Gender is defined by FAO as the relations between men and women both perceptual and material Gender is not determined biologically as a result of sexual characteristics of either women or men but is constructed socially It is a central organizing principle of societies and often governs the processes of production and reproduction consumption and distribution FAO 1997 Despite this definition gender is often misunderstood as being the promotion of women only However as we see from the FAO definition gender issues focus on women and on the relationship between men and women their roles access to and control over resources division of labor interests and needs Gender relations affect household security family well being planning production and many other aspects of life Bravo Baumann 2000

Education, Poverty and Global Goals for Gender Equality Elaine Unterhalter, Amy North, 2017-08-07 Drawing on case study research that examined initiatives which engaged with global aspirations to advance gender equality in schooling in Kenya and South Africa this book looks at how global frameworks on gender education and poverty are interpreted in local settings and the politics of implementation It discusses the forms of global agreements in particular contexts and allows for an appraisal of how they have been understood by the people who implement them By using an innovative approach to comparative cross country research the book illuminates how ideas and actions connect and disconnect around particular meanings of poverty education and gender in large systems and different settings Its conclusions will allow assessments of the approach to the post 2015 agenda to be made taking account of how policy and practice relating to global social justice are negotiated sometimes negated the forms in which they are affirmed and the actions that might help enhance them This book will be valuable for students researchers academics senior teachers senior government and inter government officials and senior staff in NGOs working in the field of education and international development gender poverty reduction and social development

Gender Justice, Education and Equality Firdevs Melis Cin, 2017-01-23 This book reframes gender and education issues from a feminist and capabilities perspective through a multi generational study of women as teachers It explores how different understandings of gender equality and education generate a variety of approaches with which to pursue gender equality in education Through employing the capabilities approach in a critical and innovative way to question justice agency and well being and also to evaluate valued functionings and capabilities freedoms and lack of opportunities in women s lives in Turkey it highlights the need for constructing a gender just society The book takes a closer look at these women s memories in order to understand how gender roles were created negotiated and contested and how the transition to modern ways of socialising and existing was shaped and women s emancipation was guided by women teachers as social actors rather than as passive onlookers or oppressed individuals It provides important insights and critical evidence to be used in the planning and implementation of education and social gender policies
