Gender Intelligence Breakthrough Strategies For Increasing Diversity And Improving Your Bottom Line:

Gender Intelligence Barbara Annis, Keith Merron, 2014-05-13 World renowned experts on gender intelligence Barbara Annis and Keith Merron suggest it's time to move beyond arguments based on politics and fairness building an economic business case for gender diversity in the workplace Despite forty years of laws quotas diversity training and legal expenses aimed toward equalizing pay opportunities and working conditions between the sexes the glass ceiling remains firmly intact For too long companies have played the numbers game attempting to tackle gender imbalance by forcing affirmative action policies and numeric standards on organizations to increase the representation of women in management Yet these efforts have rarely been sustained In this groundbreaking comprehensive analysis based on more than twenty five years of in depth surveys involving 100 000 men and women across dozens of Fortune 500 companies Barbara Annis and Keith Merron provide a deeper understanding of the multiplicity of forces that have combined to create and perpetuate gender inequality Gender Intelligence exposes common false assumptions that prevent men and women from successfully performing together at work myths exacerbated by worn out theories of gender blindness and sameness thinking It show how a small but growing number of courageous leading edge companies have broken through the barriers to successfully advance women making the remarkable transformation from compliance to choice from pressure to preference and show how it can be done in any business Gender Intelligence features 17 illustrations

Results at the Top Barbara Annis,Richard Nesbitt,2017-05-30 What if your company could gain a greater profit share of the market simply by promoting more women into its senior management team Sounds like a no brainer and despite nearly every study done in the past three decades proving companies with women leaders deliver superior performance the number of women in the C suites of companies all over the world is noticeably low Results at the Top is written for the men who know the value female leaders bring to the table and need a tangible way to get them there Whether you're building your leadership team from scratch or trying to transform long established norms for a competitive advantage today the practical guidance inside wastes no space with blame for the current state of women leaders and goes straight to the immediate steps organizations can take to change it It gives you everything you need to both create the internal systems for promoting gender diversity on every step of the career ladder and motivating employees to celebrate its shared bottom line benefits Up to date viewpoints don't confuse equal with same and go in depth into the scientific differences between men and women that can complement each other to produce higher performing teams Along with neurological variances there are societal behaviors men and women need to recognize and substitute with more productive and advantageous ones Through eye opening research and illustrative examples from the real world both sexes gain a deeper understanding of how we got here and the pioneering systems companies in the highest echelons of their industries are using to evolve leadership development all the way to the top This everyday guidebook will immediately change the way you approach work with A powerful new evaluation method for assessing the source of gender diversity in a company s leadership Concrete strategies men can use to champion greater gender diversity along with ways men and women can improve collaboration in order to run better organizations Focused coverage on addressing gender diversity with Millennials and don t be surprised when you find they re not so different The most satisfying part of Results at the Top is watching your company s performance soar as gender bias disappears The Compelling Case for Gender Diversity to Enhance Businesses Bottom Line Shafi Mohamad,2015 This paper aims to study the possible relationship between gender diversity and the impact this could have for enhancement of businesses bottom line There is compelling evidence from the literature to suggest that all else being equal women are more inclined to act ethically as opposed to men when confronted by dodgy business transactions The suggestion that follows on from this type of ethical behaviour is that when applied consistently in similar business scenarios will tend to have a favourable impact on a corporation s bottom line over time Although no empirical evidence was gathered to support this hypothesis the author would like to make the argument about a positive relationship between gender diversity and the favourable impact this would have on the corporation s bottom line as reflected by all the standard indicators based on the available anecdotal evidence
