Evil Arabs In American Popular Film Orientalist Fear:

Evil Arabs in American Popular Film Tim Jon Semmerling, 2009-06-23 2006 Runner up Arab American National Museum Book Awards The evil Arab has become a stock character in American popular films playing the villain opposite American good guys who fight for the American way It s not surprising that this stereotype has entered American popular culture given the real world conflicts between the United States and Middle Eastern countries particularly since the oil embargo of the 1970s and continuing through the Iranian hostage crisis the first and second Gulf Wars and the ongoing struggle against al Qaeda But when one compares the evil Arab of popular culture to real Arab people the stereotype falls apart In this thought provoking book Tim Jon Semmerling further dismantles the evil Arab stereotype by showing how American cultural fears which stem from challenges to our national ideologies and myths have driven us to create the evil Arab Other Semmerling bases his argument on close readings of six films The Exorcist Rollover Black Sunday Three Kings Rules of Engagement and South Park Bigger Longer Uncut as well as CNN s 9 11 documentary America Remembers Looking at their narrative structures and visual tropes he analyzes how the films portray Arabs as threatening to subvert American truths and mythic tales and how the insecurity this engenders causes Americans to project evil character and intentions on Arab peoples landscapes and cultures Semmerling also demonstrates how the evil Arab narrative has even crept into the documentary coverage of 9 11 Overall Semmerling s probing analysis of America s Orientalist fears exposes how the evil Arab of American popular film is actually an illusion that reveals more about Americans than Arabs Transgressive Truths and Flattering Lies Markus Schmitz, 2020-04-02 This book explores the formative correlations and inventive transmissions of Anglophone Arab representations ranging from early 20th century Mahjar writings to contemporary transnational Palestinian resistance art Tracing multiple beginnings and seminal intertexts the comparative study of dissonant truth making presents critical readings in which the notion of cross cultural translation gets displaced and strategic unreliability representational opacity or matters of act advance to essential qualities of the discussed works aesthetic devices and ethical concerns Questioning conventional interpretive approaches Markus Schmitz shows what Anglophone Arab studies are and what they can become from a radically decentered relational point of view Among the writers and artists discussed are such diverse figures as Rabih Alameddine William Blatty Kahlil Gibran Ihab Hassan Jabra Ibrahim Jabra Emily Jacir Walid Raad Ameen Rihani Edward Said Larissa Sansour and Raja Shehadeh Middle Eastern American Theatre Michael Malek Najjar, 2021-01-28 Middle Eastern American Theatre explores the burgeoning Middle Eastern American theatre movement with a focus on Arab American Jewish American Armenian American Iranian American and Turkish American theatres playwrights directors and actors By exploring the rich religious and cultural heritage of this diverse group which includes Arabs Armenians Iranians Jews and Turks and religions that include the Baha i faith Christianity Chaldean Druze Ishik Alevism Judaism Islam Mandaism Samaritan Shabakism Yazidi and Zoroastrianism the rich and paradoxical nature of the term Middle Eastern is interrogated through the dramas written and performed by those in the Diaspora Featuring a clear introduction and examination of the context and the various push and pull factors that have contributed to the mass migrations to North America including the so called Great Migration of 1890 1915 the Armenian Genocide the European Holocaust the two world wars the Israeli Palestinian conflict and other social and political conflicts With chapters devoted to Arab American Israeli American Iranian American and Turkish American theatre Middle Eastern American Theatre traces the history and examines the work of key artists and directors including Heather Raffo Yussef El Guindi Jamil Khoury Mona Mansour Danny Bryck Ken Kaissar Ari Roth Torange Yeghiazarian Reza Abdoh Sedef Ecer Torange Yeghiazarian of Golden Thread Productions and Jamil Khoury of Silk Road Rising The volume provides readers with a deeper and more nuanced understanding of millions of Middle Eastern Americans and how they have contributed to American theatre today The Encyclopedia of the Arab-Israeli Conflict Spencer C. Tucker, Priscilla Roberts, 2008-05-12 This exhaustive work offers readers at multiple levels key insights into the military political social cultural and religious origins of the Arab Israeli conflict The Encyclopedia of the Arab Israeli Conflict A Political Social and Military History is the first comprehensive general reference encompassing all aspects of the contentious Arab Israeli relationship from biblical times to the present with an emphasis on the era beginning with World War I The Encyclopedia of the Arab Israeli Conflict goes beyond simply recapping military engagements In four volumes with more than 750 alphabetically organized entries plus a separate documents volume it provides a wide ranging introduction to the distinct yet inextricably linked Arab and Israeli worlds and worldviews exploring all aspects of the conflict The objective analysis will help readers understand the dramatic events that have impacted the entire world from the founding of modern Israel to the building of the Suez Canal from the Six Day War to the Camp David Accords from the assassinations of Anwar Sadat and Yitzhak Rabin to the rise and fall of Yasser Arafat the 2006 Palestinian elections and the Israeli Hezbollah War in Lebanon Representations of the Orient in Western Music Nasser Al-Taei, 2017-07-05 This book focuses on the cultural political and religious representations of the Orient in Western music Dr Nasser Al Taei traces several threads in a vast repertoire of musical representations concentrating primarily on the images of violence and sensuality Al Taei argues that these prevailing traits are not only the residual manifestation of the Ottoman threat to Western Europe but also the continuation of a long and complex history of fear and fascination towards the Orient and its Islamic religion In addition to analyses of musical works Al Taei draws on travel accounts paintings biographies and political events to engage with important issues such as gender race and religious differences that may have contributed to the variously complex images of the Orient in Western music The study extends the range of Orientalism to cover eighteenth century Austria nineteenth century Russia and twentieth century America The book challenges those scholars who do not see Orientalism as problematic and tend to ignore the role of musical representations in shaping the image of the Other within a wider interdisciplinary study of knowledge and power Reimagining the Promised Land Rodney Wallis, 2020-09-17

While Israel has seemingly been a minor presence in Hollywood cinema Reimagining the Promised Land argues that there is a long history of Hollywood deploying images of Israel as a means of articulating an idealized notion of American national identity This argument is developed through readings of The Ten Commandments Cecil B DeMille 1956 Ben Hur A Tale of the Christ William Wyler 1959 Exodus Otto Preminger 1960 Cast a Giant Shadow Melville Shavelson 1966 Black Sunday John Frankenheimer 1977 The Delta Force Menahem Golan 1986 and Munich Steven Spielberg 2005 The mobilization of Israel that pervades this eclectic group of films effectively demonstrates one of the more surreptitious ways in which Hollywood has historically constructed and circulated dominant notions of American national identity Moreover in examining the most notable Hollywood representations of the Jewish state the book offers an informed historical overview of the cultural forces that have contributed to popular understandings within the United States of the state of Israel Israel s Arab neighbours and also the Arab Israeli conflict The Islamist Terrorist in Popular Hindi Cinema Roshni Sengupta,2013 Aljadid ,2005

America on Film Harry M. Benshoff,Sean Griffin,2009-01-20 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the industrial socio cultural and aesthetic factors that contribute to cinematic representations of race class gender and sexuality It chronicles the cinematic history of various cultural groups examines forces and institution bias and stimulates discussion about the relationship between film and American national culture The Journal of Popular Film and Television ,2006

Screens of Terror Phil Hammond,2011 The essays in this collection first came together at a conference held at London South Bank University s Centre for Media and Culture Research in September 2010 on representations of the war on terror in film and television Journal of Palestine Studies ,2007 A quarterly on Palestinian affairs and the Arab Israeli conflict
