In Memoriam Elbert and Alice Hubbard (Classic Reprint) John T. Hoyle,2015-06-30
Excerpt from In Memoriam Elbert and Alice Hubbard Elbert Hubbard looks down on me as I write From his position on the wall of my room he smiles at me as ever His face is alive and full of the animation and hope and energy it always had I have never seen that face with any other expression Fate has been kind to me and I have been spared the sight of the smile he took to the other side To me there has been no death no pallor no memory of seeing him in a sleep to be nevermore unbroken I know he has gone on his last little journey and that somewhere he is traveling the way His inspiration to me will forever hold me to my task Alice Hubbard went with him and it was just as they would have chosen hand in hand There could be no separation With one purpose in life here there must be the same over there God was good to them Of what the world of earnest men and women thought of them and of the inspiration they furnished the world only a little can be gotten together in one small volume like this About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
