Faith and Struggle on Smokey Mountain Benigno P. Beltran, 2012 This text describes the spiritual resilience of struggling peoples and how through their eyes Beltran learned to read the Gospel The lessons he learned bear a message for all who struggle for a better world Faith and Struggle on Smokey Mountain Benigno P. Beltran, 2013 Stephen Cherry, 2017-02-21 Why study theology Getting to the heart of this question Stephen Cherry demonstrates the appeal of exploring the unknown and the unknowable and reveals how theology the most interdisciplinary of all subjects is fascinating fun and important to our lives today Learning from All the Faithful Bradford E. Hinze, Peter C. Phan, 2016-10-31 Do various members of the church regardless of their generation gender race sexual orientation country of origin and whatever their doubts are about official church teachings and policies have any role in determining safeguarding and assessing the authentic teaching and praxis of the faith of the church This has always been a haunting question in the life of the Christian church though only recently acknowledged because of the long standing role of male clergy of European descent with a Eurocentric outlook who held hierarchical offices and determined official doctrines and moral and disciplinary codes There have been controversies that bear on these matters over the course of the church's history But it has only been over the last fifty years that the question has received increasing attention among Roman Catholics in terms of the baptismal anointing of the Spirit that bestows the gift of the sense of the faith on individuals and the collective sense of the faithful This gift provides discerning skills to recognize receive and imaginatively and practically apply the living faith in history and society This book explores these issues from historical sociological systematic and theological ethical perspectives infused by the contributions of world Christianities Catholicism in Migration and Diaspora Gemma Tulud Cruz, 2022-07-28 This book focuses on the Philippines as a powerhouse in the Catholic and global migration landscape It offers a wide ranging look at the roles dynamics character and trajectories of Catholic faith and practice in the age of migration through an interdisciplinary religious and theological approach to Filipino Catholics experience of migration and diaspora both at home and overseas In so doing the book introduces the reader to the hallmarks and characteristics of a contextual model of world Christianity and global Catholicism in the twenty first century Just faith Stephan de Beer, 2018-12-01 The purpose of this scholarly book is to expand the body of knowledge available on urban theology It introduces readers to the concept of planetary urbanisation with the view of deepening an understanding of urbanisation and its all pervasive impact on the planet people and places from a theological perspective A critical theological reading of the urban is also provided deliberating on bridging the divide between voices from the Global South and the Global North In doing so this book simultaneously seeks out robust and dynamic faith constructs expressed in various forms and embodiments of justice The methodology chosen transcended narrow disciplinary boundaries situating reflections between and across disciplines in the interface between scholarly reflection and an activist faith as well as between local rootedness and global connectedness This was facilitated by the collected gathering of authors spanning all continents various Christian faith traditions and multiple disciplines as well as a range of methodological approaches The book endeavours to contribute to knowledge production in a number of ways Firstly it suggests the inadequacy of most dominant faith expressions in the face of all pervasive forces of urbanisation and it also provides clues as to the possibility of fostering potent alternative imaginaries Secondly it explores a decolonial faith that is expressed in various forms of justice It is an attempt to offer concrete embodiments of what such a faith could look like in the context of planetary urbanisation Thirdly the book does not focus on one specific urban challenge or mode of ministry but rather introduces the concept of planetary urbanisation and then offers critical lenses with which to interrogate its consequences and challenges It considers concrete and liberating faith constructs in areas ranging from gender race economic inequality a solidarity economics and housing to urban violence indigeneity and urbanisation the interface between economic and environmental sustainability and grass roots theological education City Andy Singleterry, 2023-10-20 How can I determine which spiritual gifts I have Wrong guestion Paul writes about the spiritual gifts in his letters as capacities of communities rather than individuals and he never makes a definitive definable list The gifts are fluid and dynamic refusing to be pinned down How can we start to describe how the Spirit works through us is a much more useful question. This book helps you answer that question and then applies principles about spiritual gifts to urban ministry Cities present particular challenges to the teams who live and minister in them Certain spiritual gifts are crucial to teams trying to love their neighbors and their neighborhoods as themselves Catholic Moral Theology and Social Ethics Christina Astorga, 2013-12-01 Proposing a new method for moral theology Christina Astorga seeks to recast our understanding of the discipline by drawing from the faith vision of the entire theological enterprise including scripture dogmatic theology social ethics and spirituality Uncovering the Pearl Amos Yong, Mark A. Lamport, Timothy T. N. Lim, 2023-09-19 Asia is by far the largest continent in the world The global expansion of the church which emanated from the Middle East as explored in the first book in the series moved along various routes to take root in Asia proper Christianity in Asia is extraordinarily diverse with very ancient forms of the faith dating to the time of the apostles. The western church will be enlightened by the dynamic multi pronged Asian story of Christianity Asian Christianity is also distinct due to the numerous non traditional house or cell movements found throughout the region The diversity of Christianity in Asia makes Christians in this region critical for the future of global Christianity Voices of Hope in the Struggle to Save the Planet Marjorie Hope, James Young, 2000 Faith in Action Lyndsay Moseley, 2008 The Hope of Nature George B. Handley, 2020 Environmental problems today are pervasive and at times overwhelming It is hard to know what to feel about these problems let alone what to do In short it is hard to have hope The gospel of Jesus Christ however is good news It offers hope in the face of daunting challenges It gives believers the courage to confront realities that are otherwise tempting to ignore The restored gospel of Jesus Christ offers vital insight and inspiring principles to aid believers in their guest to be
