Families Schools And Communities 4th Edition:

Families, Schools and Communities: Together for Young Children Donna Couchenour, Kent Chrisman, 2010-02-04
FAMILIES SCHOOLS AND COMMUNITIES TOGETHER FOR YOUNG CHILDREN 4TH EDITION emphasizes the role of families and communities in children's education and is geared to meeting national standards in teacher preparation programs. Content reflects current research and best practices in education. The first section which presents a strong theoretical and research foundation provides an understanding of family diversity and contemporary issues facing families with young children. This section also addresses the understanding of family systems, family stress, and the responsibilities of parenthood. The application section emphasizes skills and dispositions that pre-service and in-service teachers are expected to develop in relation to building partnerships. These skills include effective interpersonal communication, forming a family-based philosophy of education, parent and family life education topics and strategies, and community involvement. New content includes more historical information on the family, a feature highlighting specific ways to incorporate the family, and expanded information on family strengths and community development. Important Notice: Media content referenced within the product description or the product text may not be available in the ebook version. Families, Schools, and Communities Chandler Barbour, Nita Barbour, Patricia A. Scully, 2008. A basic tenet of Families Schools Communities Building Partnerships for Educating Children fourth edition is that schools will always be a primary venue for educating the young child and educators must be in the forefront of any endeavor to bring about change. However, the authors stress that to accomplish the tasks at hand, all school districts must develop vibrant partnerships uniting parents and community members with teachers in educating tomorrow's citizens. Schools are where the action will bloom, but respectful collaboration is the key to success.

Families, Schools, and Communities Together for Young Children Donna Lee Couchenour, Kent Chrisman, 2008. Families Schools and Communities Together for Young Children 3e is a book geared to meet national standards relating to forming family and community partnerships in teacher preparation programs and reflects current research and best practice in education. The book has two sections: Understanding Families and Application to Educational Settings, covering current and contemporary issues faced by families. The third edition adds a complete chapter on fostering family involvement in academic content areas including math, literacy, science, and social studies. This new chapter contains specific ideas and strategies for increasing family involvement in the community and in schools, as well as learning at home. New information is included about working with military families, addressing issues of childhood obesity, teaching children about financial literacy, and managing money and advocacy efforts for children and families. Transforming School Leadership with ISLLC and ELCC J. Allen Queen, Henry Peel, Neil Shipman, 2013-08-06. Authoritative and practical, this book is co-authored by Neil Shipman, former ISLLC Director.
