Faku Rulership And Colonialism In The Mpondo Kingdom C 1780 1867:

Faku Timothy J. Stapleton, 2006-01-01 From roughly 1818 to 1867 Faku was ruler of the Mpondo Kingdom located in what is now the north east section of the Eastern Cape South Africa Because of Faku s legacy the Mpondo Kingdom became the last African state in Southern Africa to fall under colonial rule When his father died Faku inherited his power In a period of intense raiding migration and state formation he transformed the Mpondo polity from a loosely organized constellation of tributary groups to a centralized and populous state with effective military capabilities and a prosperous agricultural foundation In 1830 Faku allowed Wesleyan missionaries to establish a station within his kingdom and they became his main channel of communication with the Cape Colony and later Natal Ironically he never showed any serious inclination to convert to Christianity From the 1840s to early 1850s this Mpondo king played a central yet often understated role in the British colonization of South Africa While over the years his territory and power declined Faku remained quite astute in diplomatic negotiations with colonial officials and used his missionary connections to optimum advantage Timothy J Stapleton s narrative and use of oral history paint a clear and remarkable portrait of Faku and how he was able to manipulate missionaries neighbours colonists and circumstances to achieve his objectives As a result Faku Rulership and Colonialism in the Mpondo Kingdom c 1780 1867 helps illuminate the history of the entire Cape region Kingdoms and Chiefdoms of Southeastern Africa Elizabeth A. Eldredge, 2015 History and oral traditions in southeastern Africa Oral traditions in the reconstruction of southern African history Shipwreck survivor accounts from the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Founding families and chiefdoms east of the Drakensberg Maputo Bay peoples and chiefdoms before 1740 Maputo Bay 1740 1820 Eastern chiefdoms of southern Africa 1740 1815 Zulu conquests and the consolidation of power 1815 21 Military campaigns migrations and political reconfiguration Ancestors descent lines and chiefdoms west of the Drakensberg before 1820 The Caledon River valley and the Basotho of Moshoeshoe 1821 33 The expansion of the European presence at Maputo Bay 1821 33 Southern African kingdoms on the eve of colonization The House of Tshatshu Anne Kelk Mager, Phiko Jeffrey Velelo, 2018-08-30 In rural South Africa today there are signs that chieftaincies are resurging after having been disbanded in colonial times Among these is the amaTshatshu of the Eastern Cape which was dis established in 1852 by the British and recognised once more under the democratic ANC dispensation in 2003 Bawana leader of the amaTshatshu was the first Thembu chief to cross the Kei River in the mid 1820s to open up the northeastern frontier of the Cape Colony His successors and followers fought the British in the frontier wars but were defeated In tracing his history and that of his descendants this book explores the meaning of chieftainship in South Africa at the time of colonial conquest under apartheid s bantustans and now post apartheid It illustrates not only the story of a beleaguered and dispossessed people but also the ways in which power is constructed In addition it is about gender and land about belonging identity and naming The book unsettles accounts of chiefly authority unpacks conflicts between royal families municipalities and government departments and explores the impasse created by these quarrels It retrieves evidence that the colonial state sought to obliterate and draws the disempowered back into the process of making history The authors are both closely associated with the land and the people of the amaTshatshu One is a historian who grew up on their land and the other is counsellor to the chief As such they bring their knowledge and respective skills to bear in this book The collaboration of a black and a white author sets up a creative tension which animates the text and is a powerful element of the book Riotous Deathscapes Hugo ka

Canham,2023-02-01 In Riotous Deathscapes Hugo ka Canham presents an understanding of life and death based on indigenous and black ways of knowing that he terms Mpondo theory Focusing on amaMpondo people from rural Mpondoland in South Africa s Eastern Cape Canham outlines the methodologies that have enabled the community s resilience and survival He assembles historical events and a cast of ancestral and living characters following the tenor of village life to offer a portrait of how Mpondo people live and die in the face of centuries of abandonment trauma antiblackness and death Canham shows that Mpondo theory is grounded in and develops in relation to the natural world where the river and hill are key sites of being and resistance Central too is the interface between ancestors and the living in which life and death become a continuity and a boundlessness that white supremacy and neoliberalism cannot interdict By charting a course of black life in Mpondoland Canham tells a story of blackness on the African continent and beyond Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award Recipient Warfare and Tracking in Africa, 1952-1990 Timothy J Stapleton,2015-10-06 During the decolonization wars in East and Southern Africa tracking became increasingly valuable as a military tactic Drawing on archival research and interviews Stapleton presents a comparative study of the role of tracking in insurgency and counter insurgency across Kenya Zimbabwe and Namibia Networks of Domination Paul K. Macdonald,2014 In the nineteenth century European states conquered vast stretches of territory across the periphery of the international system This book challenges the conventional wisdom that these conquests were the product of European military dominance or technological superiority In contrast it claims that favorable social conditions helped fuel peripheral conquest European states enjoyed greatest success when they were able to recruit local collaborators and exploit divisions among elites in targeted societies Different configurations of social ties connecting potential conquerors with elites in the periphery played a critical role in shaping patterns of peripheral conquest as well as the strategies conquerors employed To demonstrate this argument the book compares episodes of British colonial expansion in India South Africa and Nigeria during the nineteenth century It also examines the contemporary applicability of the theory through an examination of the United States occupation of Iraq

University of Toronto Quarterly University of Toronto,2001 The Limit of Responsibility Esther D. Reed,2018-08-23 This volume frames the question of responsibility as a problem of agency in relation to the systems and structures of globalization According to Ricoeur responsibility is a shattered concept when considered too narrowly as a problem of act agency and individual freedom To examine this Esther Reed develops a short genealogy of modern liberal and post liberal concepts of responsibility in order to understand better the relationship dominant modern framings of the meanings of responsibility Reed engages with writings by major modern Schleiermacher Hegel Marx Weber and post liberal Buber Levinas Derrida Badiou Butler Young Critchley theorists to illustrate the shift from an ethnic responsibility built on notions of accountability and attributions to an ethic responsibility that starts variously from the other Reed sees Dietrich Bonhoeffer as the most promising partner of this theological dialogue as his learning of responsibility from the risen Christ present now in the global church is a welcome provocation to new thinking about the meaning of responsibility learned from land distant neighbour global church and the bible Bonhoeffer s reflections on the centre boundaries and limits of responsibility remain helpful to Christian people struggling with an increasingly exhausted concept of accountability Building a Community on the Zulu Frontier Nokuthula Peace Cele,2006 Quarterly Bulletin of the National Library of South Africa ,2010

The Sunburnt Queen Hazel Crampton,2006 The true story of a child shipwrecked in Africa Canadian Books in Print ,2003 Canadian Books in Print 2002 Edited by Butler Marian,Marian Butler,2002-02 Containing more than 48000 titles of which approximately 4000 have a 2001 imprint the author and title index is extensively cross referenced It offers a complete directory of Canadian publishers available listing the names and ISBN prefixes as well as the street e mail and web addresses

Choice ,2000 Tribing and Untribing the Archive Carolyn Hamilton,Nessa Leibhammer,2016 These volumes track how the domain of the tribal and traditional was marked out and came to be sharply distinguished from modernity how it was denied a changing history and an archive and was endowed instead with a timeless culture These volumes also offer strategies for engaging with the materials differently from the interventions effected in contemporary artworks to the inserting of nameless timeless objects of material culture into histories of individualized and politicized experience Publisher s description G.K. Hall Interdisciplinary Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture,2001 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004
